Spring 2 Newsletter 4

Hurray!

Congratulations to our two golden ticket winners from our World Book Day Sale! We hope Ava and Lily enjoy spending their £5 voucher!

Workshop for Parents

Mrs Powell is hosting a workshop for parents. This will be held at 9.05am on Tuesday 26th March in our school hall.

The workshop will be an awareness session around our refreshed behaviour and learning policy, attendance and pupil well-being. Thrive practitioner Mrs Fletcher and Mrs Ions from our Middle School will be sharing some of their expertise. Please do come along as there will be tea and coffee served afterwards with a sale of cakes. Money from this will go towards our school fund.

Easter Arrangements

Children are invited to decorate a hard boiled egg at home and enter their creation into our school 'Egg Decorating Competition'. Entries

Should be brought to school from Monday 25th. The eggs will be judged on the morning of the 26th with a winner picked from each class. Eggs can also be brought in on the morning of the 26th from 8.30am. Parents will be allowed to view all entries after the workshop which begins at 9.05am.

Book Recommendation

Nyala has recommended 'Birds' her favourite information book. Nyala said 'I like this book ...it tells me things like Robins having a red tummy!'
